In Congress.

WASHINGTON, December 11. The following bills were introduced to-day in the House: By Springer, proposing a constitutional amendment prohibiting special legislation; by Belford, to regulate railroad traffic; also to authorize the appointment of a special commissioner promoting commercial intercourse between the United States and South and Central America; also providing for the deposit of silver bullion in the Treasury, and the issue of certificates therefor; by Clements to repeal the Internal Revenue laws; by Townsend to abolish postage on second-class mail matter and reduce postage on all transient newspapers; also a resolution requesting the President to present to the House any correspondence having taken place between the Government and Great Britain in reference to the trial of Patrick O'Donnell; by Anderson to prevent undue discrimination by railroad companies, and subjecting them to the control of States under certain circumstances; by King, to equalize the pay of male and female employees of the Government; by Blanchard, to provide when the terms of Congress shall begin and end.

The object of the bill is for Congress to meet immediately after the election of members instead of 13 months after, and provide two long sessions of each Congress; by Morse, repealing the act for the coinage of standard silver dollars; by Whiting, to remove all taxes on the circulation of national banking associations. It allows 95 per cent of the market value of bonds to be circulated by notes.

Grave Yard Insurance.
BOSTON, December 11. Relative to the "grave-yard" insurance at Fall River, it is claimed that there has been a collision between the two medical examiners, and the agent and others. For the past three years, broken-down, consumptive and unhealthy persons have been insured for sums ranging from $1,000 to $3,000, and the agents or examiners would hold the policies till death ensued, and then pocket the insurance or sell the policies to rum-sellers, who would give their victims rum to hasten their death, and then collect the insurance.

Two Many Lovers.
BALTIMORE, December 11. Fannie Rimmerman, daughter of a clergyman, engaged herself to two gentlemen and fixed yesterday as the wedding day. One lover from Pennsylvania went to her residence with a license, and as he was about to drive away with her to the minister's house, his rival from Virginia made his appearance. After a race through the streets, the latter was arrested and detained until the ceremony had been performed.

A Dreadful Affliction.
BUFFALO, December 11. Some months since the small son of Pretzel was bitten by a small dog. No attention was given the matter. The son lately exhibited hydrophobia in a violent form, and yesterday another small brother who had been sleeping with him, although not bitten by the former, was attacked with the malady, while another, whom he bit in his raving, is almost as bad. The lives of two are despaired of.

Bob Law.
DELPHOS, Ohio, December 11. Last night a large number of masked men took the keys from the jail watchman, and took out Rast and Hofheimer, arrested for burglary, and demanded they should give the names of their confederates in numerous burglaries or be hanged. They refused and were strung up. When nearly dead they were let down and asked to give the names, but said they could not. They were strung up again and the mob went away.

The Modera Way.
WHEELING, December 11. Big Bill Kinney, who was acquitted of murder yesterday, was taken from jail by a mob and hanged last night. It is reported that a mob started for Clarksburg, where a cousin of Kinney is in jail, convicted of manslaughter, with the intention of hanging him.

Feathered Freight.
NEW ORLEANS, December 11. The Austrian bark Josif arrived yesterday from Capetown, South Africa. As part of her freight was twenty-three ostriches, all of which reached here alive. The birds will be taken to San Diego, Calif.

The Boom Over.
DENVER, December 11. C. P. Crawford, a banker at Silver City, New Mexico, was attacked this morning for $40,000.

The Grant County Bank, also at Silver City, was closed and an assignee appointed.

Uncared Land Grants.
WASHINGTON, December 11. Payson's bill, introduced in the Senate yesterday, declaring all uncared land grants forfeited, covers many millions of acres, and affects the different roads, as follows: Texas Pacific 15-

000,000 acres; California, Arizona & New Mexico, Gulf & Ship Island, Tucumcari & Mobile, Mobile & New Orleans, aggregating 1,500,000; Savana & Albany, involving 1,200,000; Iron Mountain & Arkansas, 1,130,000; Mobile & Girard, 482,000; Ontonagon & State Line, 142,000; Oregon Central, 130,000; Elyton & Beard's Bluff, 300,000; Oregon & California and California & Oregon, unpatented land, 4,168,000; part of the Northern Pacific from Walla Walla to Portland, 550,000; New Orleans & Jackson, 1,000,000; Iron Mountain & Missouri, 601,000; part of the Atlantic & Pacific, east of Albuquerque and west of Mojave, 150,000.

JOTTINGS

Read Mrs. Temple's ad in 50-cent column.

The goose bone prognosticates a mild Winter.

Have you found a bracelet? If so, read the 50-cent column.

Mr. Davis has his cigars in a cool place and keeps them fresh. Try one.

The Lafayette Hotel is gaining many friends under the able management of Mrs. A. J. Clark.

Writing desks at Nasby's, 27 Commercial Row. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3-14, 28, 33, 37, 40.

The Highland ditch is frozen up and the water has been turned out of the ditch. Be saving of water.

Go to Bourgeois and get your candy. Call for the fifteenth commandment, if you want something good. See 50-cent column.

Everett supplies at lowest rates all articles of groceries, hardware, crockery, etc., that a family can possibly need, and he sells them at bottom rates.

For holiday goods of superior quality you should call on Levy, who has a full supply purchased at the lowest rates. Both goods and prices will please you.

Chelovich & Co. have attentive bar-keepers, good liquors, prime cigars, and all else that you expect to find in a first-class barroom. You will always find them there and ready to supply your wants.

In addition to his drugs, which are pure, and the best patent medicines, John Myers has for sale Christmas cards, perfumery, celluloid and diastatic cases, etc., which you can purchase very cheap.

Lindley & Co. carry a larger stock than any other firm in the same line. Besides groceries, they keep hardware, cutlery, crockery, iron, steel, Cumberland coal, and, not least, they sell Thistle-dew whisky.

Liquid and solid refreshment, fragrant Havana cigars, fine billiard tables and all else that should be found in a first-class saloon, are to be had at Chase & Thyes. Go there and satisfy yourself.

Tom Barnett has laid in a large stock of boots, shoes, slippers, etc. He has everything in that line, and will furnish yourself and family with the best and lowest priced shoes you have ever worn.

For a thoroughly well kept bar-room and hotel, the Palace is the place. If you want prime liquors and accommodations, that is your place, and you will not find it surpassed on the coast. It is always open.

Goegeel has every style and quality of watch and clock, all articles of jewelry used by gentlemen or ladies, all manner of optical goods, of which he makes a specialty, and the holiday goods he offers are unsurpassed.

John Sunderland calls attention to his splendid stock of hats, of which he has made a specialty, in addition to his cheap and lasting boots and shoes. He buys his hats at the East, purchases largely at first hands, gets them low, and can sell in like manner.

Frederick has surpassed himself in his efforts to outdo all competitors by his preparations for the holidays. He has all that a jeweler and watchmaker should have. He sells cheaply, and being a practical watchmaker, he will repair your watch or clock, do it well and charge you but little.

If Nasby don't cease getting in new articles and sending in new advertisements, there will be no need to say anything about his establishment. He has almost exhausted us already, and we have not said one-half of what his bazaar deserves for cheapness and excellence of material.

George Becker evidently prides himself on keeping a remarkably quiet house. How, with its large patronage, the place can be kept so quiet, is a source of constant wonder. His beer is a mild and gentle beverage, does not induce fights, and he and his barkeepers are low-voiced and pleasant.

Every family has to do with stoves and tinware, and everyone should go to Knowles & Bainbridge to procure what they want, either new or mended in that line. They have facilities for procuring the best patterns of stoves, and they make themselves the best articles of tinware that can be procured.

Jack Becker is the boss in the lunch line. Others may have or can buy equally good beer, but no one ever tries to set out such a lunch as his. His saloon is in all respects thoroughly well kept, and he has anything you may desire in the line of refreshment. Call there and pass a portion of the evening.

New Use for Sawdust.

James Sullivan has discovered that sawdust makes an excellent bran-mash for horses. He has procured a supply from the Reno Lumber company to experiment with.

A Goodly Gift.

The ladies of the Episcopal church have raised about $210 for the Christmas tree for the Sunday school. The largest contribution was by Gen. Powning, who gave $25.

Business in Sierra Valley.

John Shay, the veteran teamster for the Eureka mine, in Plumas, has turned out his team for the season.

A WANT SUPPLIED.

The Hair Trade Gets an Organ for Offense and Defense.

The American Hairdresser, Pefumer & Milliner is a new paper whose mission the editor says is to raise the hair trade to the standard it deserves. It contains many interesting points in its special line. It says two tons of hair-pins a day are made in this country alone. A Hairdressers Congress has just been held at Berlin and decided on a return to the fashion of mountainous hair the ladies wore several years ago. The following story is given for true: A man who had never had a sign of a beard, one day noticed a lump on his neck. It grew to the size of an egg, and he went to a physician and asked him to relieve him of the disfiguring growth. On making an incision the doctor's knife encountered a spongy substance, which on examination proved to be nothing less than a closely matted and coiled mass of hair. It seems that the beard which should have spread over the young man's face had concentrated in this one spot and grown beneath the skin. The hair was removed, and the opening soon healed, and the strange development became unnoticeable.

How They Go.

Railroad boys are proverbially rolling stones, and come and go with an ease that excites the envy of men who get settled and spend their lives in one country. Business men are almost all like the man who caught the wolf, and had to wait for some one to help him let go. On the mountain, John Conners is the only conductor left, who was there in 1876. Goodrich and Calderwood were our passenger; Conners, Willard, Buckley, Webster, Burchard, Jerry Creedon, C. B. Allen, Biscoe, Murry, J. Clarke, Turner, Robb and Hedrick on freight. Now Goodrich is dead, Caldwell is on the Redding run; Willard is an officer at the Folsom Prison, Burchard lives in Rocklin, Clarke runs a locomotive on the Sacramento and Oakland run, Turner a passenger train on the same run, and Hedrick is on the Carson & Colorado. On this division, Joe Corby, Fred Bayliss and Hugh Darragh, were on passenger; Jay Parks, Carmichael, Clinch, Mike Shields, Williams, Greenleaf, Hill, Hayward and Fletter on freight. Darragh is still here, Bayliss is south, Parks on the Austin route, Clinch dead, Shields is constable at Wadsworth, Williams keeps store at Truckee, Hayward is dead, Fletter is agent for a powder company, Greenleaf is in Los Angeles, and Carmichael was hanged in Montana by the vigilantes.

Sierra Valley Notes.

The Leader of the 7th contains the following: Parker P. Routson died at Loyalton Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of over three weeks. Deceased was an old resident of the valley and his loss will be mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends. Sierra City boasts of an animal monstrosity in the shape of half bear and half dog. The Sierraville Sabbath School has concluded not to have a Christmas tree this year. The Extension of the Colombo mine at Sierra City is about to be bonded by that Company for $18,000. The Colombo mine at Sierra City contemplates starting its mill about the 15th. There is ore enough on the dump to make one run. A rich ledge has been discovered at Deer Lake. The ore is said to be fabulously rich.

There is some talk, hereabouts, of the freight for Eureka and Johnsonville coming by the way of Truckee instead of Reno. A valuable material.

A gentleman in the glass business informed a GAZETTE reporter this morning that a discovery has been made by which glass can be manufactured so cheaply that it will displace cut stone and brick for building purposes besides filling thousands of new wants. The trouble in making glass blocks has always been that in cooling they cracked, because the heat did not come out uniformly. This has been remedied so that any size can be cast and cooled without a flaw. Walls can be built of different colored blocks and holes left for chimneys right through the middle. Floors can be laid in it, pavements over basements, etc. The materials are everywhere, and are of the cheapest kind, and there seems no reason why the glass cannot be made very cheap.

Election of Officers.

At the regular meeting Saturday night of the Reno Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Wm. Webster, Master; J. K. Everett, Señor Warden; C. C. Powning, Junior Warden; T. K. Hymers; Treasurer; H. L. Fish, Secretary. The installation will take place on the 27th.

Duck Shooting.

Superintendent Hagan of the Andes and Bowie of the Alta mine came over on Saturday evening to Franktown, on a duck hunt. They shot 110 ducks and seven wild geese in the space of four and one-half hours.
